About bat ears.

They are a genetic trait that helps the dog funnel sound.

I like them for the enhancing of the dogs ears - hearing.

Not for looks. All wild feral or canines have "Bat ears".

Brian Pennington - yeah I know what they for they just don't appeal to me

They always on point on alert just look at those bat ears 😊 you know when a dog see another and they ears stand up as well - we don't have that problem with our dogs that do not have bat ears they already on alert.

The head has to match the ears.

Makes them look like French bulldogs.

They look good on some dogs. I didn't like them on mine so I had them cut.

Why all of a sudden I'm starting to see more and more hounds like that?...10 yrs ago I wasn't seeing them like I do now!!

Bussit Bust Freddy Vs-jason

This one looks nice I'm talking about the ones that stick straight up in the air
